

EAPC Early Researcher Award – Criteria for applications

The following must be evident in applications:

1. A strong documented interest and skills in research in palliative care
2. The candidate should be at the beginning of a research career, and hold a higher degree, PhD or equivalent
3. Evidence of academic development
4. Quality of application – detailed methods of research, relevance to palliative care
5. Environment/research group the candidate has worked within
6. Evidence of publication and presentations of their work at conferences and similar events
7. Evidence of scientific awards, if any
8. Able and willing to give a plenary lecture at the 7th EAPC World Research Congress in English
9. Applicants from all over the world are welcome

Deadline: 30 November, 2011